THE BREVITY BASKET.

Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

John Taylor, a colored man, died while at work yesterday on Tenth and R streets northwest, from heart disease.

Samuel F. Shreeves, violating Sunday law, fine of $2 imposed. An appeal was noted, as this is meant to be a test case.

The coroner yesterday decided that the death of Richard Johnson, who was run over by a hansom Wednesday night, was not due to the carelessness of the driver, and he was discharged.

The highest price paid for city gas stock since the last dividend of $8 per share was declared was realized last Tuesday by Messrs. Harry C. Towers & Co. in the sale of a large amount of stock at $38 per share.

The Sons of Jonadab, 750 strong, went to Glymont on decoration day and had a splendid time. This is a temperance resort, and therefore there was no trouble there, as there seems to have been at some other places.

In accordance with a decision of Judge Lawrence, work for the first proof reconstruction of the patent office under appropriation of $99,000 will be begun at once, though no payment for work performed can be made prior to July 1.

Henry Bergling, jr., the prospective groom in the Bergling-Johnson wedding, is the son of Henry Bergling, tailor, No. 1124 Seventh street. A false impression exists that he is one of the sons of George Bergling, tailor, No. 1318 F street.

The general manager of the southern division of the Pennsylvania railroad, embracing the lines south of Philadelphia, will take charge of that office to-day. His predecessor, Mr. George C. Wilkins, will at once enter upon the duties of general agent of the road at Baltimore.

Mr. Michael H. Homiller, whose family has for many years been identified with East Washington, and who was living at 130 Maryland avenue northeast, died on Wednesday of dropsy after several months' illness. He leaves a wife and two children and many personal friends.

Taken from the shelves and put on the counter to be sold at four dollars a pair—pantaloons marked down from $5, $6, $7 and $8; a little larger in the legs than the present style, but in excellent condition. The shape may be altered at slight expense to the purchasers.

GEO. C. HENNING, 410 Seventh street.

No Trouble at Marshall Hall.

To the Editor.

The item in yesterday's paper in regard to disgraceful scenes down the river has done great injustice to the Rosedale Pleasure club of South Washington, and was probably reported by parties who were refused admission. Those parties are known as disreputable, and have taken this means of getting satisfaction.

ROSEDALE PLEASURE CLUB.

The proprietor of Marshall Hall indorses the above, and further says that the Rosedale club had one of the quietest and pleasantest excursions for years.

G. W. BARRY, Proprietor of Marshall Hall.

Rochester Beer.

Try it, and if not the best bottled beer, get your money back.

Delivered to any part of the city, by dozen or case, at 75c. per dozen. Order by mail or telephone.

F. H. FINLEY, 1206 Pennsylvania avenue.

Alabama Claims.

In the court of commissioners of Alabama claims yesterday cases No. 613, Andrew Tarbox vs. United States, second class; No. 614, Abbe H. Owen, administratrix, et al. vs. United States, second class; No. 700, Henry C. Tarbox vs. United States, second class; No. 853, John Cammett vs. United States, second class; No. 855, Benjamin J. Uricans vs. United States, second class, were submitted in brief by W. L. Putnam for claimants and Walker Blaine for respondent. Cases 1044, Sarah J. Le Roy et al. vs. United States, and No. 1290, Frederick A. Harvey, administrator, et al. vs. United States, were submitted in brief. Adjourned to Monday next.

The Fifth Baptist May Festival.

The Fifth Baptist African church, corner of Twelfth street and Vermont avenue, was well filled last night, the occasion being the annual May festival of the Fifth Baptist Sunday school. The exercises consisted of singing, reading, recitations, and the coronation ceremonies, which were very interesting and attractive.

Miss Annie Robinson was the queen of May, with numerous maids of honor. Miss Mary Winston represented the queen of the fairies. Miss Bennett presided at the organ. All present complimented Mr. C. B. Broxton, the superintendent, for the success which crowned his management of the affair.

A FRIEND at last has been found in Dr. Worthington's infallible Cholera and Dysentery Medicine, for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and Diseases of the Stomach and Bowels.

A Little Private Camp Fire.

A certain popular member of Lincoln post, No. 3, G. A. R., who is an inveterate smoker, while returning from Arlington on decoration day, found his new umbrella, which protected him and his wife from the sun's rays, suddenly ablaze, a few sparks from the inevitable having set it a fire. His mishaps in that direction are the cause of much amusement to his friends. Last winter he came home one day with his overcoat literally burned to shreds by the mischief-making pipe.

Mother Swan's Worm Syrup.

Infallible, tasteless, harmless, cathartic; for feverishness, restlessness, worms, constipation. 25c.

The May Festival at St. Joseph's.

St. Joseph's church was crowded last night by a congregation to listen to a sermon by Father Schleutner, delivered in German, which related particularly to the purpose of the May festival which they were celebrating. The altar of the blessed virgin was beautifully decorated, and presented a pleasing sight. The music was acceptably rendered, and consisted of Ave Maria and Salutaris, sang by Misses Kupper and Kremer, assisted by a well trained chorus of children.

Athletic Park to-day, Louisville vs. National.

The Academy of Fine Arts.

A well attended reception was held at the National Academy of Fine Arts last evening by Mrs. Imogene R. Morrell, it having been postponed from decoration day. Musical and declamatory recitations filled the evening very pleasantly.

Virginia Midland Railway.

On and after this date the train for the south and southwest leaving hereafter at 7:10 a. m. will leave at 8:05 a. m. and make the same connections as formerly.

Special Reductions!

IN EVERY DEPARTMENT.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The special reductions made as a Souvenir of our Opening Days are positively for those days only. As we shall sell goods in many cases much below cost, we can sell only one piece of each reduced lot to a customer. Next Monday we will advertise those lots which this rule will apply to.

PALAIS ROYAL,

1117-1119 Penna. Ave.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP,

Boston Dry Goods House,

921 Penna. Avenue, D Street 912.

It Works Like a Charm!

The Automatic Cash Railway System in use in our establishment. It would have been impossible for us to have waited upon the trade satisfactorily during the past three weeks of our special sale without the aid of this valuable automatic auxiliary.

We have recently added five more stations, to keep pace with the demands of our increasing business.

The cash is carried to the cashier's desk upon an elevated inclined railway, and is returned in the same manner in a moment's time, thus doing away with the delay and annoyance of the old system.

This, in connection with our elevated bundle counter system, enables us to wait upon customers in the shortest possible time, the parcel being wrapped at the elevated bundle counter in the immediate vicinity of the department at which the goods are bought, causing little or no delay to the customer. Having placed an additional line in the center of our store for the use of the ribbon and parasol department, there is now no department in our house at which the customer need be detained beyond a reasonable time for either change or parcel.

We shall be happy to explain the working of this ingenious system to any who may not have seen it if they will be kind enough to make their wish known.

The Boston Dry Goods House.

We beg to call your attention again to our special sale of Printed Sateens, in the most beautiful designs produced this season by the Pacific Mills, at 15c per yard. These are the goods which we advertised a few weeks ago at 25c per yard as a triumph of printing in American mills.

We shall open to-day fifty pieces of Plain Sateens, of the same manufacture, in colors to match the printed designs, at the same price, viz, 15c per yd. At this price they are intrinsically the best value ever offered in cotton fabrics, either foreign or domestic, as the colors are guaranteed perfectly fast.

Still Another Bargain.

The Amoskeag Mills, Manchester, N. H., are equally as famous as the Pacific Mills, of Lawrence, Mass., in producing first-class qualities of goods. We have recently bought from them a complete line of their "Striped Chambrays," "Opal Suitings," "Chameleon Suitings," and "Plain Chambrays," to match in combinations—goods which have until recently been held at 15 and 16c per yard. We have made a large purchase of these goods, and shall offer them at the wonderfully low price of 12c per yd. The retail price of these goods has heretofore been from 17 to 20c per yard, and at the price named they are remarkably cheap. We shall place them on sale Thursday morning, 31st instant.

White Goods Department.

In order to close out at once the balance of White and Ecru Mull and Battiste Suits, we have reduced the price as follows:

All our Ecru Mull Suits, each suit containing 18 1/4 yards of embroidery, and for which our prices have been from $13 to $17, we now give you your choice at $10 each.

A few White Mull Suits also reduced to $7.50 and $10.

Choice of our Ecru Battiste Suits at two-thirds of the former price.
